

 MORUKURU OCEAN HOUSE: ONE OF AFRICA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL COASTAL RESERVES ON YOUR DOORSTEP

Offenbach/De Hoop Nature Reserve, February 17th, 2015 – An own, private home on a 51 km long pristine white beach, the Indian Ocean in front of the door, summerlike temperature and an impressive underwater world – Morukuru Ocean House offers “a home away from home” at one of the most beautiful coastal reserves in South Africa. The motto is “whatever you want, whenever you want”, because guests are the masters of their stay with Morukuru Family and have the complete freedom to do as they wish, when they wish. Guests booking a minimum of two nights at Morukuru Ocean House receive a 50% discount on any additional nights booked. The offer is valid for new bookings only and for stays until September 30th, 2015, excluding Easter Holidays. Accommodation at Morukuru Ocean House starts at 1,494€ for up to four people. Further information at www.morukuru.com

As of April 2014, guests can book Morukuru Ocean House within the 36.000 hectare De Hoop Nature Reserve, about 250 km east of Cape Town, exclusively. Guests at Morukuru Ocean House enjoy numerous activities, like mountain-biking, sandboarding down the towering white sand dunes, guided walks through the Fynbos and nature drives with a private open 4WD vehicle as well as guided marine walks. The highlight for most guests is undoubtedly the snorkeling in the sheltered and warm rock pools in the Indian Ocean. As the De Hoop Nature Reserve is a marine protected area, there are no fishing boats or yachts disturbing the peace and the untouched beauty of the underwater world. The crystal clear water offers fabulous views of countless sea dwellers and the colorful underwater plants. Masks and snorkels for the guests are available at Morukuru Ocean House.

Morukuru Ocean House can accommodate up to eight adults and four children under 16. The four double suites have their own en suite bathrooms and glass doors overlooking the ocean. Furthermore Morukuru Ocean House offers a sparkling pool, delicious food, lovely drinks served by an own personal butler, an own private kitchen with chef, open plan lounge areas, dining areas, a garden with amazing views and romantic fireplaces for cozy evenings.

Besides the Morukuru Ocean House, the Morukuru Family collection includes the Owners House, the River House and the Farm House in the malaria-free Madikwe Game Reserve, and AtholPlace Hotel & Villa in Johannesburg. The private houses of Morukuru Family offer a sanctuary where guests can celebrate the pure feeling of freedom during their holidays by spending quality time with the family and friends without maintaining any schedules or time tables. The "Morukuru Family Journey" package offers the chance to discover the whole collection of Morukuru Family. Book four nights at one of the houses in the Madikwe Game Reserve and book three nights at Morukuru Ocean House and receive two nights free at AtholPlace Hotel in Johannesburg.
