DAY ONE

Welcome to Suryagarh

When your soul searches for nourishment, the universe answers with wonder. One such place is the elemental Thar Desert, a place of freedom and of discovery with a calming silence around, and the starry heavens above.

We believe that we are not just a hotel but a representation of a unique way of life carefully preserving the traditions of our past yet framing them in a modern context.

With great consideration to our guests' comfort, our brand of hospitality is intuitive and genuine. We don't just want you to feel comfortable; we want you to feel that you belong. Come, revel in this land that is in love with the sky.

High tea at the Central courtyard

A warm welcome awaits you at Suryagarh, where you can refresh with a delightful high tea at the Central courtyard.

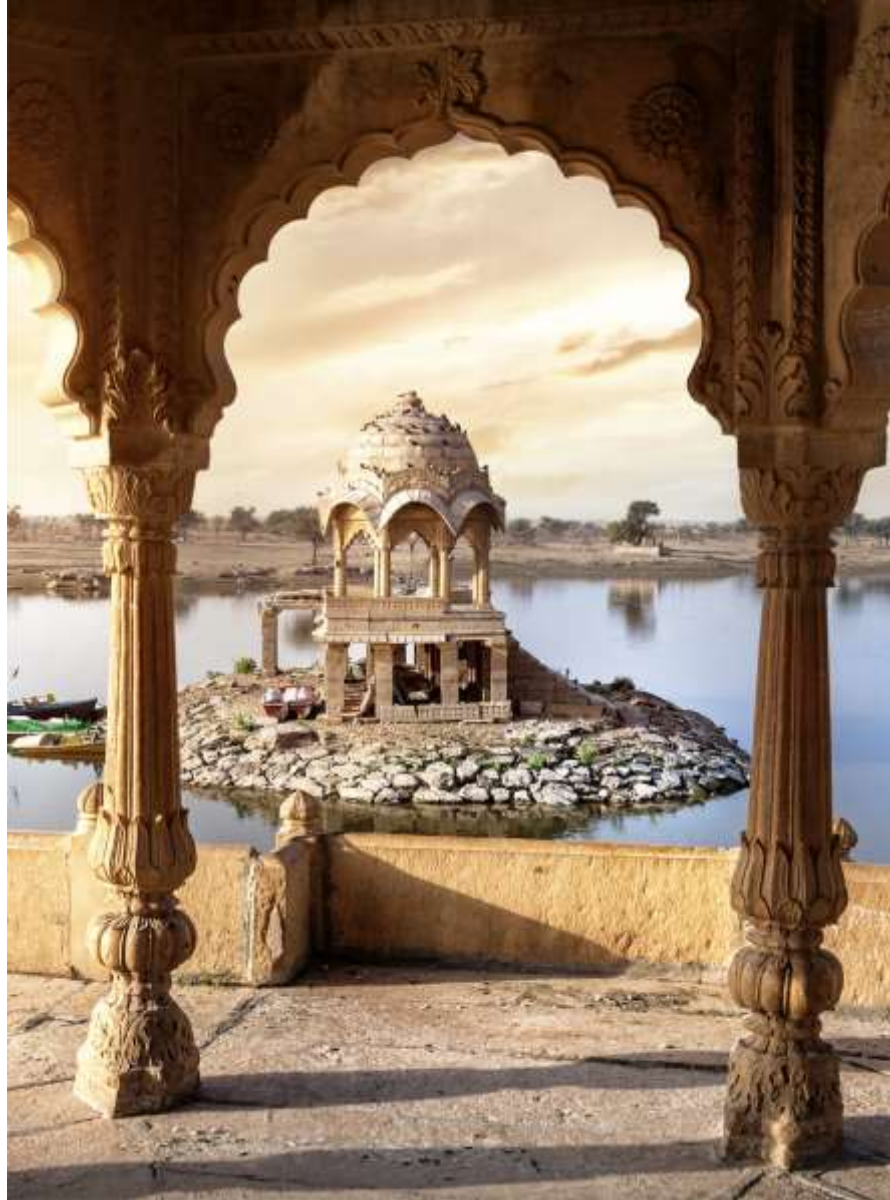

Suryagarh Signature Thali at The Legend of Marwad

Our fine dining restaurant celebrates the culinary heritage of Marwad. It brings to your table the legendary fare from court kitchens and medieval hunts, from the quiet nooks of the Zenana quarters and the zealously guarded trade secrets from the celebrated kitchens of the Maharajas, where food always told an important story.

DAY TWO

Tracing the Route of the Kak

Settlement of the Laudra Rajputs & Paliwal Brahmins:

Lodhrupur was a glorious and prosperous city set up before the 8th century and you can still see the traces of the ruins of the city in the desert, but the one monument that is intact is the Jain temple of Parshvanatha. Rebuilt in the 17th century, its ornate torana archway is perhaps the finest example of its kind in Rajasthan. The city was ruled by the Rajputs of the Laudra clan along the banks of now extinct Kak river. The city stood on the ancient trade route of the Thar Desert and it is said that the river dried when the Bhatias shifted the capital to now Jaisalmer. The caravan continues along the dried Kak river bed and takes us to the settlements of the Paliwals. The Paliwals were people who moved from Pali and established settlements in and around Jaisalmer in the 12th century.

Dinner on the Dunes

We present you with a true representation of a nomadic hunt menu.

In this most magical of all settings, we present you with a true representation of a Nomadic Hunt Menu. The evening is set against the backdrop of a mesmerizing folk singer. The food prepared on site is glorious; the ambiance is majestic as music floats and the stars shine down on you, a night like this is an experience that is unmatched.

DAY THREE

The Thar Trail

A grand full day exploration of the thar trail.

This grand full day Exploration Trail experience is made of 3 different segments and ending with the ultimate Thar Dinner at our Celebration Gardens at Suryagarh. You start off after a late breakfast with the Thar Trail, described above. After your break and perhaps a bit of rest at Suryagarh, late afternoon we start again into the second leg of this Trail and show you places where once the Merchants took their short refreshment breaks. We drive you to the natural springs of Moondri where we find the sweetest drinkable water in this region and the wells never dry up. Before we take you back to Suryagarh, you experience some remarkable Sunset moments on the banks of Joshida Talab, once meant for the Royalty of the region only. The day ends with the memorable Thar Dinner, just the way the rich travelling Merchants did in the past.

Thar Dinner at Celebration Garden

Culinary traditions of the region inspired from the the communal dinner of travellers and merchants.

Once upon a time, Jaisalmer was a busy pit stop on the Silk Route. The Thar Dinner at Suryagarh pays homage to the culinary traditions of the region that are inspired from the the communal dinner of travellers and merchants on the Silk Route who crossed the Thar to Jaisalmer. Starry skies, canopies, low mattress style seating, candle lights and pathway of flowers all together make this one of the most comfortable and enjoyable dining experiences at Suryagarh. Let us surprise you at the shores of the Celebration Gardens with Channa Daal Ki Shaami, Meat Kaleji or the most famous Gosht Resham Tamge ...we have it all! Lay back and enjoy the fabulous experience.

Breakfast at Nosh

Nosh our all-day dining room is an airy, welcoming space which encourages conversation and conviviality. Easy and relaxed, you are free to drop in any time of day or night, for Nosh is open 'round the clock. Stay for as long as you like, even longer, for we are in no hurry, and neither should you be. Happy noshing!
